Fantastic Book! Perfect Theology!

By John Doyle

5 stars today for another great book by RC Sproul. I purchased it to read with my nephew and niece and we all thoroughly enjoyed the story. Now, I'll likely purchase another copy to send to my other nephew and niece. I know it will be appreciated in their home too. I'd recommend The King Without A Shadow to anyone.

Here's an overly simplistic summary (because its late and I'm sleepy):

This brief story follows a king's quest to discover the mysteries surrounding light and darkness, which are metaphors for holiness and sin. The king discovers that there is another King in whom there is no darkness, no evil, no sin and as a result of his purity, this perfect King has no shadow. The story is heartwarming, fun to read and teaches about the holiness of God.

Wonderful Children's book

By melanie leopold

This book is wonderful. There are so many books for children out there with no substance but this one really makes the child think. As a grandmother it made me think too. I'll buy more of this author's books.
